TRINIDAD WINS EASILY FROM YANKEE TEAM

The Yankee, N. M., team was easily defeated Sunday by Trinidad, but the visitors were a clean, fast playing bunch that gave the locals a chance to show their skill. Kerner, the new backstop, made two home runs in his spectacular introduction to this end of the state. Bradley made a couple of bad errors, much out of keeping with the kind of ball the Trinidad fan demands. Nash was in the box for a time and showed fine form. Johnson propelled his avowed pious over the center garden in race-horse fashion and won a home by his hitting. Owens showed up well at third and looks like a good successor to Niehoff. Honska showed a big burst of speed and looks good.

"I expect to retire, at least temporarily, from the Atchison management, in order to obtain rest and time for other work, which I have been compelled to lay aside for several years. I have desired for a number of years to give up railroad work, and my resignation now is not
